

All people should have *the right

to learn*

[...] real education is impossible through a foreign medium [...]

the vernacular medium alone can stimulate originality in thought in the largest number of persons.

Mahatma Gandhi (1920), Young India 16/6

their mother tongue

and the

The only goal of the international language Esperanto is to give the different peoples of the world [...] the ability to understand each other. It has no intention of interfering in their internal language use.

Lazar Ludwig Zamenhof (1900), Essence and future of the idea of an international language.

international language.

In support of Unesco's International Mother Language Day, on 21 February every year:

World Esperanto Association

Nieuwe Binnenweg 176, NL-3015 BJ Rotterdam, the Netherlands

www.esperanto.net